Collegiate Scholarship for Television Production, Reporting, Videography, and Writing

PURPOSE

The Rehoboth Public Access Corporation (REPAC) will award one or more student scholarships of up to $1,000 annually to a Dighton/Rehoboth Regional High School student enrolling in an accredited college or university program in television reporting, videography, production or writing. REPAC awards these scholarships to encourage students who demonstrate leadership and talent in advancing the artistic, cultural, educational, and technical qualities of television. Scholarships awards will be sent to schools for 2nd, 3rd, and 4th years students.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

Scholarship applicants:

- ϕ Must be a Senior enrolled at Dighton-Rehoboth Regional High School
- ϕ Have enrolled in a collegiate-level curriculum in one or more areas of the television industry
- ϕ Will be attending an accredited institution of higher education

APPLICATION PROCEDURES

The scholarship application is available for download on REPAC's web site at www.repac9.org, and is available at the DR Regional High School administrative offices. Completed applications must be postmarked no later than April 30, 2011.

The REPAC Scholarship Committee will screen all applications and reviews DVD submissions and essays to select one or more recipients. The successful applicants will be notified by mail by July 31, 2011.

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

Please specify which scholarship category for which you are applying. You may enter more than one category but must submit a separate application form and associated material for each entry. The video entry must be specific to the category for which you are applying.

Each application must include:

1. a completed scholarship application form;
2. a copy of your high-school transcript indicating your GPA and class standing;
3. a one-page resume summarizing your television academic and work experience, related activities and personal goals;
4. Three letters of recommendation from your faculty members, job coach or employer as to why they believe you are a good candidate for an award.
5. Documentation showing you have been accepted to an accredited institution of higher learning and have enrolled in a television reporting, videography, production or writing curriculum.
6. A 15-minute video containing category-specific supporting material:
 - a. Reporting: Submit a composite of three stories showing your skills as a writer/reporter.
 - b. Videography: Submit a composite of three different pieces that you have shot.
 - c. Production: Submit a composite of three examples of your work in one or more of the following areas: producing, directing, editing, lighting, graphics designing, or set design and include a brief statement describing your role in the material submitted — i.e. story or interview idea, writing, editing, producing, reporting, shooting, directing.
 - d. Writing: Submit three video samples of your work accompanied by scripts and a one-page letter detailing the stories, whether they aired on a campus or other broadcast, and why they were chosen for submission.

All submissions must be on a single DVD/R. DVDs will not be returned. Label each DVD with your name and scholarship category.

The applicant authorizes release of any information pertinent to this scholarship competition, including transcripts; and hereby grants REPAC permission to use portions of the winning entries for educational / promotional
